KOREA WILL DOCK AT NAVAL WHARF

The Korea is due at daylight this morning and will dock at Naval Wharf No. 3. The Korea has an unusually heavy Oriental freight, including over 3,000 tons of supplies for the Japanese army. On account of her heavy cargo it is impossible to get the Korea into the Hackfeld wharf, and for this reason permission was given her to use the naval dock. The Iroquois will be moved over to the other side of the dock in order to accommodate the Korea.

THOUGHT IT WAS THE THETIS

When the U. S. S. Supply was sighted off Koko Head yesterday morning it was thought that the long expected revenue cutter Thetis was outside. The custom house was informed that it was the cutter, and permission was obtained to dock her at the naval wharf. Collector Stackable also went out in the customs launch, but had not gone far when he discovered that a mistake had been made. The Thetis is now twelve days out from San Francisco and is expected daily.

A DOG'S FIDELITY.

Last week a gamekeeper named Henry Osmond in the employ of Lord Falkmouth was fatally shot in a poaching affray at the Tregothan Woods. The evidence shows that Osmond must have died between 6:30 and 7 o'clock on Tuesday evening, January 28. His body was not discovered until 5 o'clock on the following Wednesday afternoon. All these hours, during which it rained pitilessly, a retriever puppy remained immovable by the side of her dead master and in her fierce affection would not allow the search party to touch the body. At last it was secured and fastened to a tree, but the faithful animal gnawed through the rope and returned to its guardianship of the dead.

Just a hint: Mr. Sloman—"It's so strange that we have no national flower. We certainly should have one." Miss Waite (significantly)—"Yes, I think the orange blossom would be nice."—Ex.

JAIL ADDITION WORK DELAYED

Work on the addition to the jail has been delayed by the failure of the iron work to arrive. The structural iron is not expected for several months and it will be six months or a year before the addition is completed.

High Sheriff Brown says that the jail is at present very much overcrowded. Although there are accommodations for only 240 prisoners, 314 are now confined there, and of these thirty are compelled to sleep outside in the workhouse, mattresses being furnished for the purpose. Two and three prisoners are kept in some of the cells, and since the reduced appropriation makes it necessary to cut the number of guards from twenty-four to eighteen, there is even more necessity than ordinarily for additional prison room. The overcrowding of the prison is due to the confinement of a large number of vagrants, and of forty or fifty federal prisoners.

The last legislature made an appropriation of $10,000 for the foundation for a new prison, but no new site has been selected as yet. It is the intention to re-locate the prison on a tract of government land further from the center of town.
